

Dear customers,

After 14 years of life we can say that our Meeting Point already has its history! History of rewards and incentives, the moments of our lives marked by the pleasure of sitting at one table food beautifully cooked, accompanied by good conversation, good drinks and delicious desserts, all with the aim of make a part of your dining experience there, and not only, that constantly tries to outdo and improve our product offering and in full satisfaction of our customers, suppliers and collaborators.

The history of this restaurant is not only linked to its managers and chefs, but also to all employees who every day are part of our learning experience, making mistakes, and smiling constantly growing with us.

Fortunately many of you customers, often expressed this satisfaction. For us and for our staff this is a source of pride and encouragement enough to feel compelled to always improve, day after day, our history.

This renewed energy, between you and us, is intended to improve the quality of the food and service we give, using fresh products and reliable quality, complementing and enriching the specialties and Italian culinary traditions who i fiercely guard. Everything is prepared on time, with professionalism and a much needed touch of love. We want the result is always a dish fresh, authentic and tasty.

In the restaurant we have a family atmosphere where children and adults feel happy, a place to return, to remember and love.

Thank you for choosing us again,
